Dan,

I again want to thank you for the follow up on my product inquiry. I have done business with you guys for sometime and never had any follow up service before and I must say you and your team are excellent. I have communicated this via the Better Business Bureau, Facebook, and Yelp. I think consumers need to know about your team. We are quick to point out negative comments and forget about when things are positive. Being a retired business man you and your staff operate very much like our family operated with service to the customer being number one.
